

Rok Cooking Announces 2 New Hot Rock Customers

Rok Cooking announces 2 new customers that have implemented its rock cooking system: George's Honey Tree in West Bloomfield Michigan and Grand Tavern in Rochester Hills, Michigan.

San Jose, CA (PRWEB) September 02, 2011 -- Rok Cooking is pleased to partner with restaurateur George Lucha, co owner of George's Honey Tree in West Bloomfield Michigan and Grand Tavern in Rochester Hills, Michigan to bring the many benefits of hot rock cooking to the diners of Oakland County in Southeastern Michigan. George first introduced hot rock cooking at George's Honey Tree and the response was so positive he immediately ordered a second hot rock system from Rok Cooking for Grand Tavern.

“Customers love the unique experience of cooking on a volcanic rok. They love being in control of the cooking process, they love the flavor and healthy aspects of cooking on the rok and they think it's a lot of fun. Preparing hot rock meals is so easy we've been able to trim costs while growing our revenue.” stated George.

George's Honey Tree is located at 33080 Northwestern Highway, West Bloomfield, MI 48322, tel. (248) 539-8300, website www.georghoneytree.com. Besides offering hot rock entrées, George's Honey Tree features a wide array of Greek favorites including flaming saganaki (OPA!), moussaka, pastitsio, spinach pie, lamb shank, their famous Greek salad and many more Greek specialties.

Grand Tavern is located at 3512 Marketplace Circle, Rochester Hills, MI 48309, tel. (248) 289-1350, website www.grandtavernrochesterhills.com. Grand Tavern recently opened offering the community a new hotspot for food, drinks, sports and family fun. The tavern has 25 flat screen TVs, making sure that each guest can watch their favorite team.

About Rok

Rok Cooking is a leader in the design, manufacture, and distribution of rock cooking products for restaurants and consumers. Their products are the highest quality and most affordable rock cooking products on the market. Rok is modern stone-age cooking at its very finest. For more information, visit www.rokcooking.com.

###